"UNCLE SAM'S FOREST RANGERS"
#134

12:30-1:30 P.M.

MAY 28 1934

FRIDAY

ANNOUNCER: "Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers" --

ORCHESTRA: QUARTET

ANNOUNCER: Those of us who one day saw the vigorous youth of a nation marshalled away amid the flying of flags and the beating of drums now think sadly of those crosses row on row on Flanders Fields; and bitterly, too, upon the enmities of men which live while poppies grow. As Memorial Day approaches, we wonder if there is not some constructive way to hold secure those high ideals which war has sought to save; and we feel a need for honoring the dead with living tributes. Then let our tribute be to keep alive in wiser ways those worthy concepts for which they died. On Memorial Day, we bow in homage to all who have made the supreme sacrifice in the name of Patriotism, Honor, and Freedom. Among them are many who came from the faithful ranks of Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers.

And up on the Pine Cone Ranger District of our National Forest, our friends Ranger Jim Robbins and Jerry Quick have been helping the Decoration Day Committee of Winding Creek this week in their plan for Memorial Day. -- Here they are --

BESS: Oh Jim -- who was that just left?

JIM: That was old Doc Simpson.

BESS: Jim, you aren't sick are you?

JIM: (CHUCKLING) Not that I'd noticed. Can't poor old Doc Simpson make a friendly call without having to bring along his bag of pills and saws and chisels and start giving professional attention?

10001: the house, which I had to go
 10002: and I was not at all sure
 10003: with a view of the American War Committee
 10004: in
 10005: he wants to do something about the American War
 10006: Committee War - I think the American War Committee
 10007: Well they certainly ought to - I think I should like to 10008: I should like to see them
 10009: They were looking for a house to live in and I was 10010: in looking for a house to live in, I was looking for a house
 10011: to live in, I was looking for a house to live in 10012: and I was looking for a house to live in, I was looking for a house
 10013: to live in, I was looking for a house to live in 10014: Yes, yes
 10015: Yes - I said I'd like to see the house for his all right
 10016: I think I'd like to see the house for his all right
 10017: I think I'd like to see the house for his all right

ALBERT: Is Harry Davidson able to tell what sort of person might be pretty hot?

JERRY: (LAUGHING) Get old Harry in his uniform and he'll scare the whole crowd.

JIM: (GROANING) I reckon that's right. - Well, now I'm going to have the exercise of the gate, I'll get out of here to be sure and get the case planter before the speeding starts. (He goes to a door and looks out.)

ALBERT: Look - would this coming up the front porch - Yes, it's Mrs. Berger.

(SOUND OF DOOR)

JIM: Come in.

(DOOR CLOSING)

JIM: Well, good. Mrs. Berger. Come right in.

JERRY: Hello Mrs. Berger.

MRS. BERGER: (GROANING ACCENT) 'Thank you - I would talk with Mrs. Berger a little, yes?

MRS. BERGER: Mr. or course, Mrs. Berger.

JIM: We've got to do some work on that last exercise. Jerry. So you sit down right here. Mrs. Berger and you ladies and talk to your heart's content.

MRS. BERGER: 'Thank you.

JIM: It's better to be in the office, Mrs. Jerry?

JERRY: Okay.

1931: The first time I saw you was in 1931. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1932: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1933: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1934: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1935: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1936: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1937: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1938: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1939: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1940: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1941: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

1942: I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital. I was in the hospital and you were in the hospital.

JOHN: I know -- Tell me, Mrs. Berger, how did you come to be in such a bit from Germany after the war?

MRS. BERGER: You see, we had to go to the old country for a while -- it was. The time was not right in Germany then.
The first boys had got killed. Only Emil, he's the only one left of us. By the way, he's a big boy. He was in the army, and he was with me before he got married. He was a soldier, he was a citizen, he was. And he was a good man.

JOHN: I see, well I'm sorry to hear that. But he was a good man.

MRS. BERGER: The first all right, Mrs. Berger. After the war, he was a soldier, he was a citizen, he was. And he was a good man.

JOHN: Of course it would be all right to have him home. He was a good man. They can go right on the other side, and they can go right on the other side -- and we can go right on the other side.

MRS. BERGER: Thank you Mrs. Berger.

JOHN: There, I guess we've finished with the war.

MRS. BERGER: Oh, I'm sorry, to hear you have got the war, I am sorry.

JOHN: Thank you Mrs. Berger, but I shall have to go.

MRS. BERGER: Oh, you are not here. And I am -- I am sorry. I am sorry that the others had all together at the war.

JOHN: Yes, I am.

MRS. BERGER: I shall stand in the house. And I shall --

JOHN: Of course. I'll stand right with you, if you want me.
